

Cargo & Dangerous Goods Training

IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations for Processing DG Consignments - Recurrent

I101

1. Initial Situation

This course is recommended for personnel involved in processing dangerous goods consignments:

- Personnel working for cargo agents, consolidators and freight forwarder who are responsible for processing dangerous goods consignments from shippers to airlines
- IATA Cargo agent applicants willing to fulfil the training requirements for DGR

2. Course Objective

Upon completing this course you will be able to:

- Fulfil the regulatory compliance requirements
- Perform tasks involved in accepting dangerous goods consignments
- Apply IATA's DGR manual to process dangerous goods consignments accurately
- Discuss the legal responsibilities of stakeholders involved in the transportation of dangerous goods by air

3. Entry Requirements

Every applicant shall provide evidence of the following:

- Good knowledge of written English,
- Valid Certificate of Dangerous Goods Regulations for Processing DG Consignments

4. Course Description and Duration

The IATA Dangerous Goods Course is lectured by a professional IATA Dangerous Goods instructor and the covered topics are:

Legal responsibilities of key stakeholders; Understanding and applying relevant sections of current IATA DGR; Importance of accurate identification and classification of dangerous goods; Safety implications of packaging types, and net quantity limitations; End-to-end communication of hazards and handling requirements using correct marks and labels; Radioactive material transportation; Impact of State and Operator variations on dangerous goods acceptance.

Courses are carried out in Czech language (in English on request), a written exam is in English.

4.1 Theoretical Training

➤ Classroom instruction

- 24 hours of classroom instruction with a professional IATA instructor.

The whole Dangerous Goods Regulations Course usually takes 3 days.

Location/Device/Tools

Classroom

5. Optional Training or Optional Modules of This Course

The course can be enhanced by selection of additional or optional training according to specific needs of the customer:

❖ Other DG Awareness and Cargo Courses

- CATC can provide numerous other types of Dangerous Goods courses;
- Most can be done either by self-study or classroom instruction;
- Contact us for more information.

Location/Device/Tools

Classroom
Self-study

6. Training Documents/Textbooks/Study Materials

Prior to the beginning of the course, the student will receive a standard IATA study kit, including the actual IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations Manual (on request), Exercises etc.

During the welcome session students will receive the following documents and data:

- Dangerous Goods Awareness handbook;
- Handy Dangerous Goods Awareness brochure.

7. Course Completion Certificate

This is a professional skills development course. An IATA certificate is awarded at the end of the course.

For more information, please contact info@catc.cz.